The leading IT business consulting and system integration company expands its US based footprint.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9, 2024 Fincons.US, Inc., a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG, an international IT business consulting and system integration company incorporated 40 years ago in Italy, with more than 2,700 professionals, has acquired 100% of the assets of PDG Consulting LLC, an IT, business intelligence and digital transformation company specialized in the Media & Entertainment sector. PDG Consulting is based in Los Angeles and has an offshore office in Mumbai (India) and accounts for over 100 professionals, 15 years of experience on the market.

Fincons Group announces closing of acquisition of PDG Consulting's assets

PDG US based employees and customers are now transferred into Fincons.US, Inc., while the Mumbai office, with its 40 professionals, has become an integral part of Fincons India Private Limited, a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG and sister company to Fincons.US, Inc. This strategic acquisition consolidates Fincons Group's international expansion, in fact, the Group has quadrupled its turnover and opened 8 new offices in the UK, United States, Germany, France and Belgium, in addition to the historic offices in Italy and Switzerland, since 2013. With Fincons India, Fincons Group aims to further enhance Fincons' offering of IT services in Smart-Shore, adding a strategic option to complement the Bari Delivery Center maintaining competitiveness and customary high-quality levels to the benefit of all the Group's customers.

Michele Moretti, CEO Fincons Group, comments: "We have always grown organically to date, thanks to our skills, our focus on building lasting and solid relationships with customers and partners and our commitment to research and development. As a result of our efforts, we're proud to have achieved key positioning on the international market. Now the time has come to move even further forward and consolidate our expansion plans with a significant step both for Fincons, which becomes more and more a global business, and for our customers, to whom we will now offer even more experience, quality and passion everywhere in the world."

PDG was in fact selected not only for its strategic positioning on the US market but also for its affinities with Fincons' values, in particular its attention to people, customers and sustainability. Furthermore, the skill and experience of PDG Consulting's professionals will complement the Fincons team in the United States, consolidating the expansion process across various target sectors in addition to Media, such as Manufacturing, Financial Service and Energy and Utilities.

"This acquisition will contribute to making Fincons' US presence more relevant. It will also strengthen the Group in terms of assets and workforce, allowing us to offer even more rounded and competitive services to our international customers, who will benefit from an even more complete team, delivering our high standards of service and forward-thinking approach to technological integration, based on the ongoing scouting of best-in-class solutions around the globe," declares Francesco Moretti, Group Deputy CEO and CEO International.

Adam Tarshis, Partner PDG Consulting, comments: "With a worldwide footprint, a dedicated team comprising thousands of skilled engineers and analysts, and a remarkable four-decade legacy in IT consulting, Fincons provides PDG a much larger platform from which we can leverage our deep proficiency in media operations and video distribution. The new organization also significantly broadens the core capabilities we will be able to offer both new and existing clients. We're excited by the vision that Michele and Francesco have for the company and are thrilled to help drive Fincons' expansion in the US."

The acquisition provides Fincons with a US-based team that is structured to consolidate the existing customer base, that will be offered new services, but also to expand the business by winning new customers. The new, even stronger, US business now aims to expand its footprint in the Media and Entertainment sector with a special focus on providing services around streaming, leveraging Fincons' experience supporting a major global operator. Rights management is another area the team will focus on with AllRights, the innovative "all-encompassing" solution developed by Fincons to enable media companies to boost content monetization. Last but not least, the newly strengthened Fincons.US, Inc. will provide advertising solutions for the Media industry, also leveraging the additional drive provided by the partnership with Operative, a global provider of solutions to automate digital and linear revenue workflows, streamline ad operations, and deliver audiences and outcomes to their buyers.

The new Fincons.US expanded team will be at CES to showcase bolstered capabilities. Come and meet the team lead by Stefano Urbani, Deputy CEO Fincons.US and Adam Tarshis, SVP Media US in the Sky Suite at the Aria Resort&Casino by reserving your spot here: <https://inkd.in/drmsV8aD>

Fincons.US, Inc.: Fincons Group announces closing of acquisition of PDG Consulting's assets

The leading IT business consulting and system integration company expands its US based footprint.

NEW YORK, Jan. 9, 2024 Fincons.US, Inc., a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG, an international IT business consulting and system integration company incorporated 40 years ago in Italy, with more than 2,700 professionals, has acquired 100% of the assets of PDG Consulting LLC, an IT, business intelligence and digital transformation company specialized in the Media & Entertainment sector. PDG Consulting is based in Los Angeles and has an offshore office in Mumbai (India) and accounts for over 100 professionals, 15 years of experience on the market.

PDG US based employees and customers are now transferred into Fincons.US, Inc, while the Mumbai office, with its 40 professionals, has become an integral part of Fincons India Private Limited, a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG and sister company to Fincons.US, Inc. This strategic acquisition consolidates Fincons Group's international expansion, in fact, the Group has quadrupled its turnover and opened 8 new offices in the UK, United States, Germany, France and Belgium, in addition to the historic offices in Italy and Switzerland, since 2013. With Fincons India, Fincons Group aims to further enhance Fincons' offering of IT services in Smart-Shore, adding a strategic option to complement the Bari Delivery Center maintaining competitiveness and customary high-quality levels to the benefit of all the Group's customers.

Michele Moretti, CEO Fincons Group, comments: "We have always grown organically to date, thanks to our skills, our focus on building lasting and solid relationships with customers and partners and our commitment to research and development. As a result of our efforts, we're proud to have achieved key positioning on the international market. Now the time has come to move even further forward and consolidate our expansion plans with a significant step both for Fincons, which becomes more and more a global business, and for our customers, to whom we will now offer even more experience, quality and passion everywhere in the world."

PDG was in fact selected not only for its strategic positioning on the US market but also for its affinities with Fincons' values, in particular its attention to people, customers and sustainability. Furthermore, the skill and experience of PDG Consulting's professionals will complement the Fincons team in the United States, consolidating the expansion process across various target sectors in addition to Media, such as Manufacturing, Financial Service and Energy and Utilities.

"This acquisition will contribute to making Fincons' US presence more relevant. It will also strengthen the Group in terms of assets and workforce, allowing us to offer even more rounded and competitive services to our international customers, who will benefit from an even more complete team, delivering our high standards of service and forward-thinking approach to technological integration, based on the ongoing scouting of best-in-class solutions around the globe," declares Francesco Moretti, Group Deputy CEO and CEO International.

Adam Tarshis, Partner PDG Consulting, comments: "With a worldwide footprint, a dedicated team comprising thousands of skilled engineers and analysts, and a remarkable four-decade legacy in IT consulting, Fincons provides PDG a much larger platform from which we can leverage our deep proficiency in media operations and video distribution. The new organization also significantly broadens the core capabilities we will be able to offer both new and existing clients. We're excited by the vision that Michele and Francesco have for the company and are thrilled to help drive Fincons' expansion in the US".

The acquisition provides Fincons with a US-based team that is structured to consolidate the existing customer base, that will be offered new services, but also to expand the business by winning new customers. The new, even stronger, US business now aims to expand its footprint in the Media and Entertainment sector with a special focus on providing services around streaming, leveraging Fincons' experience supporting a major global operator. Rights management is another area the team will focus on with AllRights, the innovative "all-encompassing" solution developed by Fincons to enable media companies to boost content monetization. Last but not least, the newly strengthened Fincons.US, Inc. will provide advertising solutions for the Media industry, also leveraging the additional drive provided by the partnership with Operative, a global provider of solutions to automate digital and linear revenue workflows, streamline ad operations, and deliver audiences and outcomes to their buyers.

L'azienda internazionale di IT business consulting dal cuore italiano continua ad espandersi oltreoceano

Fincons.US Inc., società controllata al 100% da Fincons Group AG, azienda internazionale di IT business consulting e system integration fondata 40 anni fa in Italia con oltre 2.700 professionisti nel mondo, annuncia oggi di aver firmato un Accordo di Acquisizione del 100% degli Asset di PDG Consulting LLC, un'azienda di IT, business intelligence e trasformazione digitale specializzata nel settore media & entertainment. PDG Consulting, con base a Los Angeles e un ufficio offshore a Mumbai (India), è una realtà che conta oltre 100 professionisti, 15 anni di esperienza sul mercato e un fatturato di 13 milioni USD.

La chiusura dell'accordo è fissata al 21 dicembre 2023 e, a partire dal 1° gennaio 2024, i collaboratori e i clienti di PDG negli Stati Uniti saranno parte di Fincons.US Inc, mentre l'ufficio di Mumbai, con i suoi 40 professionisti, formerà Fincons India Private Limited, la nuova società controllata al 100% da Fincons Group AG e società consorella di Fincons.US Inc. Attraverso Fincons India, il Gruppo potrà potenziare ulteriormente la propria offerta di servizi IT in Smart-Shore andando ad integrare l'offering del Delivery Center di Bari e al medesimo tempo garantendo competitività e andando a mantenere elevati livelli di qualità, a beneficio di tutti i clienti del Gruppo.

Per Fincons questa rappresenta un'acquisizione strategica ed un ulteriore importante step nel proprio percorso di espansione internazionale. Dal 2013 ad oggi, il Gruppo ha quadruplicato il suo fatturato e aperto 8 nuovi uffici nel Regno Unito, negli Stati Uniti, in Germania, in Francia e in Belgio, che si sono aggiunti agli uffici storici in Italia e in Svizzera.

Michele Moretti, CEO di Fincons Group, commenta: "Fino ad oggi siamo sempre cresciuti in modo organico, grazie alle nostre competenze, alla nostra attenzione nel costruire relazioni solide e durature con i nostri clienti e partner e grazie ai nostri investimenti in ricerca e sviluppo. Siamo orgogliosi di aver raggiunto un posizionamento di rilievo sul mercato internazionale grazie all'impegno profuso. Adesso, è arrivato il momento di spingerci oltre, rafforzando i nostri piani di espansione con un ulteriore passo significativo sia per Fincons, che avrà un respiro ancor più globale, sia per i nostri clienti, a cui offriremo rinnovata esperienza, qualità e passione ovunque nel mondo".

La scelta di acquisire PDG nasce non solo dal posizionamento strategico dell'azienda sul mercato statunitense, ma anche dall'affinità dei valori condivisi, in particolare l'attenzione alle persone, ai clienti e alla sostenibilità. Inoltre, le competenze e l'esperienza degli executive di PDG Consulting andranno ad integrare l'eccellenza del team di Fincons negli Stati Uniti, consolidando il processo di espansione del Gruppo nei diversi settori target.

"Questa acquisizione contribuirà a rendere il volume d'affari del Gruppo ancora più consistente, difatti le revenue di Fincons negli Stati Uniti supereranno i 25 milioni di euro. Inoltre, il Gruppo si rafforzerà anche in termini di asset e personale, consentendoci di offrire servizi ancora più completi e competitivi ai nostri clienti internazionali, che beneficeranno di un team ancora più solido ed in grado di garantire i nostri elevati standard di servizio. Sappremo garantire un approccio innovativo, basato sulla continua ricerca delle migliori soluzioni e package in tutto il mondo", dichiara Francesco Moretti, Deputy CEO del Gruppo e CEO Internazionale.

Adam Tarshis, Partner di PDG Consulting, commenta: "Con una presenza globale, solidi team che comprendono migliaia di software engineers e analisti qualificati e una eccezionale storia quarantennale nella consulenza IT, Fincons garantisce a PDG una piattaforma molto più ampia attraverso la quale proporre le profonde competenze acquisite in ambito media operations e video distribution. La nuova organizzazione inoltre andrà ad ampliare in modo significativo le competenze core che saremo in grado di offrire sia ai nuovi clienti, sia a quelli esistenti. Siamo entusiasti della visione che Michele e Francesco hanno per il futuro dell'azienda e siamo felici di poter contribuire all'espansione di Fincons negli Stati Uniti".

Fincons Group amplia la presenza negli Usa con Pdg Consulting

L'azienda di consulenza It e system integration nata in Italia prosegue sulla strada dell'internazionalizzazione.

È nata in Italia circa quarant'anni fa, ma da tempo ha un'anima internazionale, che oggi si rafforza ancor più. Stiamo parlando di Fincons Group, realtà che opera nella consulenza It e nella system integration e che, attraverso la sua controllata Fincons.Us, ha provveduto all'acquisizione del 100% degli asset di Pdg Consulting. Quest'ultima è un'azienda specializzata in business intelligence e trasformazione digitale, con un focus particolare nel settore media & entertainment.

Con sede a Los Angeles e un ufficio offshore a Mumbai, Pdg Consulting conta oggi su oltre 100 professionisti, 15 anni di esperienza sul mercato e un fatturato di 13 milioni di dollari. Attraverso questa operazione, Fincons Group mira a potenziare ulteriormente la sua offerta di servizi It in modalità Smart-Shore, integrando l'offerta del Delivery Center di Bari e rafforzando gli standard di competitività per tutti i clienti del Gruppo.

La chiusura dell'accordo è prevista per la fine dell'anno e, a partire dal 1° gennaio 2024, i dipendenti e i clienti di Pdg negli Stati Uniti diventeranno parte integrante di Fincons.Us. L'ufficio di Mumbai, con i suoi 40 professionisti, formerà la nuova entità Fincons India Private Limited, controllata al 100% da Fincons Group.

L'acquisizione si inquadra in un percorso di internazionalizzazione, che ha portato Fincons ad aprire, dal 2013 a oggi, otto nuovi uffici in paesi come Regno Unito, Stati Uniti, Germania, Francia e Belgio, che si sono aggiunti alle sedi storiche in Italia e Svizzera. Oggi l'azienda impiega circa 2.700 persone.

Francesco Moretti, deputy Ceo del gruppo e Internazionale, ha sottolineato gli impatti positivi dell'operazione: "Questa acquisizione contribuirà a rendere il volume d'affari del Gruppo ancora più consistente, con le revenue di Fincons negli Stati Uniti che supereranno i 25 milioni di euro. Il Gruppo si rafforzerà anche in termini di asset e personale, consentendoci di offrire servizi ancora più completi e competitivi ai nostri clienti internazionali".

Fincons firma l'accordo per acquisire la statunitense PDG Consulting

Fincons.US Inc., società controllata al 100% da Fincons Group AG, azienda internazionale di IT business consulting e system integration fondata 40 anni fa in Italia con oltre 2.700 professionisti nel mondo, annuncia oggi di aver firmato un Accordo di Acquisizione del 100% degli Asset di PDG Consulting LLC, un'azienda di IT, business intelligence e trasformazione digitale specializzata nel settore media & entertainment. PDG Consulting, con base a Los Angeles e un ufficio offshore a Mumbai (India), è una realtà che conta oltre 100 professionisti, 15 anni di esperienza sul mercato e un fatturato di 13 milioni USD.

La chiusura dell'accordo è fissata al 31 dicembre 2023 e, a partire dal 1° gennaio 2024, i collaboratori e i clienti di PDG negli Stati Uniti saranno parte di Fincons.US Inc, mentre l'ufficio di Mumbai, con i suoi 40 professionisti, formerà Fincons India Private Limited, la nuova società controllata al 100% da Fincons Group AG e società consorella di Fincons.US Inc. Attraverso Fincons India, il Gruppo potrà potenziare ulteriormente la propria offerta di servizi IT in Smart-Shore andando ad integrare l'offering del Delivery Center di Bari e al medesimo tempo garantendo competitività e andando a mantenere elevati livelli di qualità, a beneficio di tutti i clienti del Gruppo.

Per Fincons questa rappresenta un'acquisizione strategica ed un ulteriore importante step nel proprio percorso di espansione internazionale. Dal 2013 ad oggi, il Gruppo ha quadruplicato il suo fatturato e aperto 8 nuovi uffici nel Regno Unito, negli Stati Uniti, in Germania, in Francia e in Belgio, che si sono aggiunti agli uffici storici in Italia e in Svizzera.

Michele Moretti, CEO di Fincons Group, commenta: "Fino ad oggi siamo sempre cresciuti in modo organico, grazie alle nostre competenze, alla nostra attenzione nel costruire relazioni solide e durature con i nostri clienti e partner e grazie ai nostri investimenti in ricerca e sviluppo. Siamo orgogliosi di aver raggiunto un posizionamento di rilievo sul mercato internazionale grazie all'impegno profuso. Adesso, è arrivato il momento di spingerci oltre, rafforzando i nostri piani di espansione con un ulteriore passo significativo sia per Fincons, che avrà un respiro ancor più globale, sia per i nostri clienti, a cui offriremo rinnovata esperienza, qualità e passione ovunque nel mondo".

La scelta di acquisire PDG nasce non solo dal posizionamento strategico dell'azienda sul mercato statunitense, ma anche dall'affinità dei valori condivisi, in particolare l'attenzione alle persone, ai clienti e alla sostenibilità. Inoltre, le competenze e l'esperienza degli executive di PDG Consulting andranno ad integrare l'eccellenza del team di Fincons negli Stati Uniti, consolidando il processo di espansione del Gruppo nei diversi settori target.

"Questa acquisizione contribuirà a rendere il volume d'affari del Gruppo ancora più consistente, difatti le revenue di Fincons negli Stati Uniti supereranno i 25 milioni di euro. Inoltre, il Gruppo si rafforzerà anche in termini di asset e personale, consentendoci di offrire servizi ancora più completi e competitivi ai nostri clienti internazionali, che beneficeranno di un team ancora più solido ed in grado di garantire i nostri elevati standard di servizio. Sappremo garantire un approccio innovativo, basato sulla continua ricerca delle migliori soluzioni e package in tutto il mondo", dichiara Francesco Moretti, Deputy CEO del Gruppo e CEO Internazionale.

Adam Tarshis, Partner di PDG Consulting, commenta: "Con una presenza globale, solidi team che comprendono migliaia di software engineers e analisti qualificati e una eccezionale storia quarantennale nella consulenza IT, Fincons garantisce a PDG una piattaforma molto più ampia attraverso la quale proporre le profonde competenze acquisite in ambito media operations e video distribution. La nuova organizzazione inoltre andrà ad ampliare in modo significativo le competenze core che saremo in grado di offrire sia ai nuovi clienti, sia a quelli esistenti. Siamo entusiasti della visione che Michele e Francesco hanno per il futuro dell'azienda e siamo felici di poter contribuire all'espansione di Fincons negli Stati Uniti".

Siamo orgogliosi di aver raggiunto un posizionamento di rilievo sul mercato internazionale grazie all'impegno profuso. Adesso, è arrivato il momento di spingersi oltre, rafforzando i nostri piani di espansione con un ulteriore passo significativo sia per Fincons, che avrà un respiro ancor più globale, sia per i nostri clienti, a cui offriamo rinnovata esperienza, qualità e passione ovunque nel mondo".

La scelta di acquisire PDG nasce non solo dal posizionamento strategico dell'azienda sul mercato statunitense, ma anche dall'affinità dei valori condivisi, in particolare l'attenzione alle persone, ai clienti e alla sostenibilità. Inoltre, le competenze e l'esperienza degli executive di PDG Consulting andranno ad integrare l'eccellenza del team di Fincons negli Stati Uniti, consolidando il processo di espansione del Gruppo nei diversi settori target.

"Questa acquisizione contribuirà a rendere il volume d'affari del Gruppo ancora più consistente, infatti le revenue di Fincons negli Stati Uniti supereranno i 25 milioni di euro. Inoltre, il Gruppo si rafforzerà anche in termini di asset e personale, consentendoci di offrire servizi ancora più completi e competitivi ai nostri clienti internazionali, che beneficeranno di un team ancora più solido ed in grado di garantire i nostri elevati standard di servizio. Sappremo garantire un approccio innovativo, basato sulla continua ricerca delle migliori soluzioni e package in tutto il mondo", dichiara Francesco Moretti, Deputy CEO del Gruppo e CEO Internazionale.

Adam Tershish, Partner di PDG Consulting, commenta: "Con una presenza globale, solidi team che comprendono migliaia di software engineers e analisti qualificati e una eccezionale storia quarantennale nella consulenza IT, Fincons garantisce a PDG una piattaforma molto più ampia attraverso la quale proporre le profonde competenze acquisite in ambito media operations e video distribution. La nuova organizzazione inoltre andrà ad ampliare in modo significativo le competenze con le quali saremo in grado di offrire sia ai nuovi clienti, sia a quelli esistenti. Siamo entusiasti della visione che Michele e Francesco hanno per il futuro dell'azienda e siamo felici di poter contribuire all'espansione di Fincons negli Stati Uniti".

Inoltre, le competenze e l'esperienza degli executive di PDG Consulting andranno ad integrare l'eccellenza del team di Fincons negli Stati Uniti, consolidando il processo di espansione del Gruppo nei diversi settori target.

"Questa acquisizione contribuirà a rendere il volume d'affari del Gruppo ancora più consistente, difatti le revenue di Fincons negli Stati Uniti supereranno i 25 milioni di euro. Inoltre, il Gruppo si rafforzerà anche in termini di asset e personale, consentendoci di offrire servizi ancora più completi e competitivi ai nostri clienti internazionali, che beneficeranno di un team ancora più solido ed in grado di garantire i nostri elevati standard di servizio. Fincons signs agreements to acquire US based company PDG Consulting

The Italian at heart international IT business consulting company continues to expand internationally

NEW YORK, Dec. 4, 2023

Fincons.US, Inc., a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG, an international IT business consulting and system integration company incorporated 40 years ago in Italy, with more than 2,700 professionals, announces today that it has signed an Asset Purchase Agreement with PDG Consulting LLC, an IT, business intelligence and digital transformation company specialized in the media & entertainment sector, to acquire 100% of its assets. PDG Consulting is based in Los Angeles and has an offshore office in Mumbai (India) and accounts for over 100 professionals, 15 years of experience on the market and 13 million USD in turnover.

The closing date is set on December 31st 2023, and starting from January 1st 2024, PDG US based employees and customers will be transferred into Fincons.US, Inc, while the Mumbai office, with its 40 professionals, will form an integral part of Fincons India Private Limited, a fully owned subsidiary of Fincons Group AG and sister company to Fincons.US, Inc. With Fincons India, Fincons Group aims to further enhance Fincons' offering of IT services in Smart-Shore, adding a strategic option to complement the Bari Delivery Center maintaining competitiveness and customary high quality levels to the benefit of all the Group's customers.

With its first strategic acquisition Fincons Group continues its trajectory of international expansion. From 2013 to today, the Group has quadrupled its turnover and opened 8 new offices in the UK, United States, Germany, France and Belgium, in addition to the historic offices in Italy and Switzerland.

Michele Moretti, CEO Fincons Group, comments: "We have always grown organically to date, thanks to our skills, our focus on building lasting and solid relationships with customers and partners and our commitment to research and development. As a result of our efforts, we're proud to have achieved key positioning on the international market. Now the time has come to move even further forward and consolidate our expansion plans with a significant step both for Fincons, which becomes more and more a global business, and for our customers, to whom we will now offer even more experience, quality and passion everywhere in the world."

PDG was in fact selected not only for its strategic positioning on the US market but also for its affinities with Fincons' values, in particular its attention to people, customers and sustainability. Furthermore, the skill and experience of PDG Consulting's executives will complement the Fincons team in the United States, consolidating the expansion process across various target sectors.

"This acquisition will contribute to making Fincons' turnover even more consistent. Fincons' revenues in the US will in fact exceed 25 million euros. It will also strengthen the Group in terms of assets and workforce, allowing us to offer even more rounded and competitive services to our international customers, who will benefit from an even more complete team, delivering our high standards of service and forward-thinking approach to technological integration, based on the ongoing scouting of best-in-class solutions around the globe," declares Francesco Moretti, Group Deputy CEO and CEO International.

Adam Tarshis, Partner PDG Consulting, comments: "With a worldwide footprint, a dedicated team comprising thousands of skilled engineers and analysts, and a remarkable four-decade legacy in IT consulting, Fincons provides PDG a much larger platform from which we can leverage our deep proficiency in media operations and video distribution. The new organization also significantly broadens the core capabilities we will be able to offer both new and existing clients. We're excited by the vision that Michele and Francesco have for the company and are thrilled to help drive Fincons' expansion in the US".
